

ABSTRACT

The development of information technology at this time very rapidly, the development of technology media in the delivery of information is increasingly growing. For that in the process of information technology required a good, effective and efficient, because the information has a very big value for a company or agency. The purpose of making The Application activity and reports of disruption IT (Information Technology) in PT Kereta Api Indonesia DAOP 5 Purwokerto is to simplify part of It in the various processes of system on the reporting of activity and disruption so that it can be done quickly and accurately. Method of data collection used among other interviews and observations directly. Application development using Web-based programming language (PHP) and MySQL database.

Keywords : Website, PHP, MySQL, Bootstrap.