

ABSTRACT

The modern era as it is today where technological advances are increasingly advanced, the growth of the digital world is increasingly rapid, many moments that can be immortalized quickly and spread quickly, technology with the name videography can now be seen, known, stored and disseminated, various media that can spread video of an event or event, One of the media that can spread and Informing an event on television. Media that can be seen by many people, in this day and age the development of television also penetrates into the digital world, through the platform provided can make television to be watched anywhere and anytime, news video shooting also through several stages, ranging from planning and also the concept of the idea of how news videos will be made.