

ABSTRACT

Banyumas regency is one of many varied places in Central Java. Banyumas regency is home to a diverse cultural history that must be conserved due to its rarity. Because of the rarity of this relic, the government decided to create a museum dedicated to these rare historical artifacts. Banyumas Puppet Museum is the name of the museum. One of Banyuma's cultural treasures is a collection of historical relics that must be conserved in the present period. As a result, the museum must be created in virtual form so that museum visitors from all internet users can experience the Banyumas museum.
