Banyumas is one of the districts with an interesting and unique culture. But at this time the development of culture is increasingly fading and getting away from the young. With the development of technology that is increasingly rapid and the dissemination of information is also becoming easier in this era, the use of websites as a means of information is the right thing to create culture in banyumas. The design site, which was named Banyumas Culture, became an icon to discuss the culture in Banyumas. With an attractive appearance, young people will feel more comfortable to surf and also know the ins and outs of Banyumas Culture.
