

ABSTRACT

The BanjarnegaraNews application is an application that is used to read news either from one or more. The creation of the BanjarnegaraNews android application is based on the use of smartphones which are starting to become an obligation in today's society. The application is made so that news readers can access news anywhere and anytime as long as the internet connection allows it.

In the application there are several features that can make it easier for Banjarnegara News readers to get the best reading comfort. The BanjarnegaraNews application provides news & articles to meet reading needs in various types of smartphone sizes. The application is made using the Flutter Framework.

After going through the testing process that has been carried out, the application that is made can display news and articles. Banjarnegaraneews and able to present it properly. The application can also run all the features in it.

Keywords : Android, Framework, Flutter